Mr. Ashworth,

Thank you for your email. If counsel agree, I think it best that I hold-off any further review of the issue until I am advised it needs my attention. I appreciate you bringing me up to date on the status. Therefore I will hold the motion in abeyance until I hear from counsel that it has been resolved or what, if any, issues need my attention. Thank you.

Judge,

Thank you for the email. We'll submit any additional filings in the manner you've set forth. However, we may be able to avoid the need for you to intervene. Counsel for AmerisourceBergen, the proponent of the subpoena, and I have agreed to revisit these issues in thirty (30) days. By that time, I think we will be in a much better position to meaningfully discuss a time frame for compliance and a plan for handling any disputes. As such, would the court rather hold my motion in abeyance and wait for an update at the end of the thirty days before proceeding?
